27. MANAGING IN CHANGING ENVIRONMENT

Managing in a Changing Environment, the second of two courses in the subject area of midlevel management, covers the skills and techniques midlevel managers need to provide leadership and direction for their departments. Content includes an overview of significant economic, social, political, and technological influences affecting fire service operations. Students will have the opportunity to identify and relate these influences to their personal and professional situations and to practice strategies for managing changes resulting from those influences.

This is a TWO DAY CLASS

INSTRUCTOR: HAROLD C. COHEN, PHD.

Dr. Cohen has over 30 years experience in fire and EMS, having served for 22 years in a metro-sized department, reaching the rank of division chief. He is a senior project manager with SPC/TriData, a fire and EMS consulting firm in Arlington, VA. He is a graduate of the NFA Executive Fire Officer Program.
