203 NFA Executive Skills: Exercising Leadership Within Communities

The objective of this 2-day course is to provide fire service authority figures with knowledge and skills that enable them to exercise leadership when confronting adaptive challenges presented by increasingly diverse internal and external communities. The goal of the course is for participants to use the diversity of ideas, peoples and cultures as resources in exercising leadership to address adaptive challenges in their communities. The primary target audience is fire and emergency service personnel in positions of authority (Company officers) who have an opportunity to exercise leadership.

This course will be held off-site.

This 2-day course will be offered Thursday-Friday.

Lead Instructor: Harold Cohen, National Fire Academy
