

Lecture	Skill	Fractional Credit
9	0	0.6

Course Description

This is an advanced course designed to teach the student to control or extinguish live fires involving combustible liquids of at least 100 sq. ft. using foam, fire in an elevated location, hidden fires inside walls and crawl spaces, fire involving energized electrical components and fire involving a flammable gas cylinder.

Prerequisites: FRS 1033 or Consent

Corequisite: None

Task List

- |    |   |
|----|---|
| 1. | Extinguish or control the following live fires working as a member of a team and using appropriate protective equipment, fire fighting tools, extinguishing agents: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. An exterior combustible liquids fire of at least 100 sq. ft. (9 m<sup>2</sup>), using a foam fire stream;</li> <li>b. A fire in an elevated location within a structure (e.g., upper level floor, attic);</li> <li>c. A hidden fire within a structure (e.g., within walls, crawl spaces);</li> <li>d. A fire involving energized electrical components;</li> <li>e. A fire involving a flammable gas cylinder (exterior); and</li> <li>f. A fire in a below-grade area or other location requiring initial attack from upper levels.</li> </ul> |
|----|---|

Instructor Equipment List

As needed to teach skills

Old FRT Number: 410 / FRT 137