

UNDERSTANDING ANHYDROUS AMMONIA

Course Description:

This course was developed by Robert Burke to train Emergency Responders in the hazards associated with Anhydrous Ammonia. This 4-hour course will cover various aspects of the product including physical characteristics and properties, health and safety concerns and will review several case studies involving Anhydrous Ammonia.

Prerequisites: None

Textbook: None

Course Length: 4 hours